

Driver Orientation Information

Since 1982, we have prided ourselves on taking care of our people because simply put, our people take care of our customers. We expect a lot, but offer a lot in return as relates to pay, home time and benefits.

Driver Orientation consists of the following:

DOT physical and drug screen (at the company's expense)

Human Performance Evaluation

Road driving test.

Safety Protocol

Operational procedures and requirements

Benefits offered

All required hiring paperwork

Orientation for Company drivers and Owner Operators is offered at 4 locations, Charlotte, NC, Manchester, PA, Columbus, OH and Granger IA.

Orientation is held every Monday and Wednesday at all facilities except Granger, IA. Monday is the only day we start orientations in Granger. Orientation lasts 2 days.

Barring delays you will release with your assigned truck on Tuesday or Thursday.

A sign on bonus, if applicable, is earned when Orientation is successfully completed and you pick up your first load.

Travel, Lodging & Meals

We will provide you with transportation via Greyhound bus at our expense.

In all locations we have arranged a local cab service to transport you from the Greyhound bus station to your hotel. Your recruiter will provide this information.

Barr-Nunn will put you up at one of our hotels. You will have your own room.

Our hotels in York(PA), Charlotte(NC), Columbus(OH) and Granger(IA) all provide a free continental breakfast.

Barr-Nunn will provide lunch at our terminal during class both days.
